

Real-World Research Experiences for Undergraduates

at the National Weather Center, Department of Geography & Environmental Sustainability, Radar Innovation Lab, and South Central Climate Adaptation Science Center

Present Your Work at a National Conference

Go on Science and Career Tours and Field Trips

Participate in Skill-
Building Workshops

May 20 – July 31, 2019

Alternate dates possible if on the quarter system.

Who is eligible: US Citizens and Permanent Residents who are pursuing an undergraduate degree through summer 2019

Research topics in weather and climate related research

You Receive:

- $5,000 stipend + $500 subsistence
- $600 travel allowance to/from Norman
- $1,500 travel allowance to a national conference
- Housing in modern, furnished campus apartments <1 mi away

We build a sense of family by learning and reflecting together through workshops, field trips, seminars, tours, and a variety of social activities. Projects for many majors: Electrical & Computer Engineering, Physics, Math, Computer Science, and more!

More information: www.caps.ou.edu/reu/

